Re: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 which was received into this office on 16th June 2016.

You Asked for:

1. Information about any provision the CCG has commissioned to meet the mental health needs of single/non-statutory homeless persons.
2. To provide a description of any commissioned provision including details of; the numbers of staff and professional disciplines dedicated to it; any particular conditions (e.g. psychological trauma, psychosis); and sub-populations the provision may be targeted at; access/referral pathways for service users to this provision; and specific intervention models/approaches informing the provision.
3. If any provision of this sort has recently been discontinued or is currently being planned.

Our Response:

NHS Wirral Clinical Commissioning Group commissions homeless outreach services ,as per the attached specifications, for the Complex Needs Service and Ark Service.
