Re: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 which was received into this office on 9th December 2016.

You asked for information about contracts with private companies:

FOI to find out whether the CCG has any current contracts with private companies to support primary care through the reviewing of GP referrals.

Our Response:

NHS Wirral Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) currently have no contracts with private companies to support primary care through the reviewing of GP referrals.
