Re: Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 which was received into this office on 7th October 2015.

You Asked for:

Can you please provide me with the details of any funding attributed or budgeted for, within the current financial year, to be spent on physical activity or exercise promotion, including in cases where the CCG is funding joint-initiatives with other local partners.

Can you also please provide a best estimate of the total current annual spend by the CCG for the current financial year?

Our Response:

NHS Wirral Clinical Commissioning Group does not commission physical activity or exercise promotion therefore there is no annual spend.
