Re: Freedom of Information Request – Excess Skin Surgery

Thank you for your request for information made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, which was received into this office on 11th March 2020.

You Asked for:

Can you please tell me whether you provide funding for excess skin removal for patients who have undergone privately funded weight loss surgery? (I.e. have had surgery not under the NHS). Please send me the criteria for this procedure if applicable.

Our Response:

This is not routinely commissioned other than if certain criteria are met. Please click on the link provided below for further information and may I direct you to pages 49-50.
